

back

MOTomed gracile

10 Handlebar

The handlebar is designed for holding on to or resting the hands on – this is very helpful for users with strong spasticity, balance problems and for patients using the MOTomed for active training.

Especially for users with limited motor activity in the arms, hands and fingers, the handlebar serves as a rest for the hands while pressing the buttons, which supports independent operation.

The handlebar is covered with a washable foam sheath.

recommend this website to a friend

top of page